

Vision 21 at St. James City Farm, Gloucester

Green

FUN DAY

learning why local produce is so important

Saturday 13th August 2011
11am-4pm

free!

Activities and stands include:

Grow Your Own Advice Stand!

The Wiggly Worm

Seasonal food cookery demonstrations!

- Gloucestershire

Beekeepers Association

- Gloucestershire Wildlife Trust

- Learn how to make great compost with the Master Composters and see a wiggly wormery at work!

Creatures of the Rainforest! Meet the Bug Man!

Gloucester Transition Town – advice on sustainable and healthy living.

Life-size environmental board game!

GrowVision Exhibition – ‘why sustainable food is so important’

Just come along on the day.

A FREE locally produced ice cream for the first 100 children!!!

Face Painting – Be an endangered species for the day!

Meet the animals on the farm

St James City Farm, 23 Albany St, Tredworth, Gloucester, GL1 4NG

FREE entry and all activities free! For enquiries email:- office@vision21.org.uk or phone: 01242 224321. www.vision21.org.uk

Organised by

Vision 21

GLoucestershire

to promote the importance of sustainable food and raise environmental awareness.

Vision 21 Fun Day, funded by the Big Lottery Fund's Awards for All

Green

Vision 21 at St. James City Farm, Gloucester

learning why local produce is so important!

FUN DAY

Saturday 13th August 2011
11am - 4pm

Free!

Activities and stands include:

Grow Your Own Advice Stand!

Seasonal food cookery demonstrations!

- Gloucestershire Beekeepers Association
- Gloucestershire Wildlife Trust

Creatures of the Rainforest! Meet the Bug Man!
- Learn how to make great compost with the Master Composters and see a wiggly wormery at work!

A FREE locally produced ice cream for the first 100 children!!!

Gloucester Transition Town - advice on sustainable and healthy living.

Life-size environmental board game!

Grow/Vision Exhibition - 'why sustainable food is so important'

Face Painting - Be an endangered species for the day!

Meet the animals on the farm

Just come along on the day.

St James City Farm, 23 Albany St, Tredworth, Gloucester, GL1 4NG

FREE entry and all activities free! For enquiries email:- office@vision21.org.uk or phone: 01242 224321. www.vision21.org.uk

Organised by

Vision 21
GLoucestershire
to promote the importance of sustainable food and raise environmental awareness.

Vision 21 Fun Day, funded by the Big Lottery Funds Awards for All

Green

Vision 21 at St. James City Farm, Gloucester

learning why local produce is so important!

FUN DAY

Saturday 13th August 2011
11am - 4pm

Free!

Activities and stands include:

Grow Your Own Advice Stand!

Seasonal food cookery demonstrations!

- Gloucestershire Beekeepers Association
- Gloucestershire Wildlife Trust

Creatures of the Rainforest! Meet the Bug Man!
- Learn how to make great compost with the Master Composters and see a wiggly wormery at work!

A FREE locally produced ice cream for the first 100 children!!!

Gloucester Transition Town - advice on sustainable and healthy living.

Life-size environmental board game!

Grow/Vision Exhibition - 'why sustainable food is so important'

Face Painting - Be an endangered species for the day!

Meet the animals on the farm

Just come along on the day.

St James City Farm, 23 Albany St, Tredworth, Gloucester, GL1 4NG

FREE entry and all activities free! For enquiries email:- office@vision21.org.uk or phone: 01242 224321. www.vision21.org.uk

Organised by

Vision 21
GLoucestershire
to promote the importance of sustainable food and raise environmental awareness.

Vision 21 Fun Day, funded by the Big Lottery Funds Awards for All

